General Information

Floy Rorie was Class Leader and offered the opening prayer.

Dale Wilson brought the snacks.

Jim Alexander gave the closing prayer.

PROGRAM:

Nelson Cain continued our 6-week Amy-Jill Levine “Signs and Wonders” series with the third session of “The Centrality of Bread”. If you missed this program, or would like to see it again, you can find it here on our PACE website.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

We will re-arrange the chairs in our room after class today and going forward. This will leave the room set up for the next class.

The Men’s Breakfast will meet 8am this Thursday January 25th at Le Peep Grill, 3501 Midway Road.

Please consider signing up for Snacks and Closing Prayer, either online or on the paper versions at our nametag table.

We hope all class members will volunteer their birthday (month and day only!), also at the nametag table.

Barb Petsel invites everyone to the February 12th program on Fentanyl and other addictive drugs. It will meet at 6:30pm in our classroom.

CONCERNS: << back to top >>

Cherry Sims has COVID. Keep her in your prayers.

Margaret Johnson: Tolerated chemo treatments and radiation well. Still has rib pain from broken ribs caused from lung cancer. She will have another 3-day course of chemo in February. Keep her in your prayers.

Susan Johnston: her daughter, Stephanie, is going to have testing for ovarian cancer, and scheduled for surgery Feb 2.

Dave Mather: Going back into the hospital on Jan 25 to have stents inserted for the 70% blockage found Dec 20th. Per Medicare he had to be on a certain medication prior to stents and in Dec it had not been prescribed. Payers for another smooth heart catheterization.

Floy Rorie asked for prayers for her brother Jerry who is paralyzed and had a seizure recently.

Also, her good friend Debbie's daughter, Keley (age 33) was diagnosed with uterine cancer.

Kate Moreland fell off a two-step ladder and fractured her tailbone the day after Christmas. She still has some pain probably another few weeks or so doctor said, and she has a follow up appointment with the Dr end of January.

Sherry Hartman: Continued prayers for her sister, Connie – her foot infection continues to heal, and the hyperbaric treatments have finished now, but the healing is a slow process – She has a cast on her foot to help her get around some. Sherry goes to her sister's house every 4 days to care for her.

Susan Griffith still has shingles. She continues to improve but keep her in your prayers.

Janet Bilhartz: prayers for her friend and neighbor Jancie Weikert with colon cancer. Going through a challenging time.

Becky Mather: Prayers for her sister, Sandi. She is continuing with chemo treatments - did well after her last treatment.

Jennie LeClaire has had back pain over the past few months - recently found out it is intercostal neuropathy. She is having PT now which is helping, but she still has pain.

Rita Ward: Prayers for her sister, Myra who has cancer. Her treatments have been helping her lately.

Paul Hurd: prayers for his sister, Jane Hurd, in Santa Barbara, CA. She has metastatic cancer.

Sandra Homoky: her daughter-in-law, Claire. She continues to take antibiotics for her finger, but it is healing and not spreading.

JOYS << back to top >>

VOLT (Vision of Light Team) had a culling and reorganizing of glasses inventory this week, and a display of the mission project during church services. Quite a few new people showed interest in joining VOLT.

Janet and Skip Bilhartz are driving to Breckenridge this week – safe travels!

Sue Ann and Tom Arthur are doing much better this week.

February Birthdays:

2/3 Margaret Johnson

2/7 Carol Dorsey

2/8 Susan Johnston

2/10 Barbara Durkin

2/17 Don Wilson

2/18 Sandra Homoky

NEXT SUNDAY: << back to top >>
